Path Management

The questions

we at RPM bring forward for answering include:

🔔 Scaling the wrongs and building the rights:

who rights the wrongs?

🔔 High quality: how and why?

🔔 Air Aid: do oxygenated pathways speed the learning process?

🔔 Prudent pruning: sacking or relieving?

🔔 Money: help or hindrance to staff?

Three easily digestible pellets

Part 1 – Repackaging the skill set where my colleagues in the reduction suite reload the psychological baseframes.

Part 2 – Brain mapping uploading the bespoke knowledge package frontally and with intensive ease.

Part 3 – Implementation scenarios making sense of skills acquisition.

Supplementary modules

Help the learner absorb the skills we have fed them. Key nodes:

☺ Smell the Skills -

breathing in a multi-change simulation forum

☺ Prizing you – esteem building in a pro-abuse world

☺ Climbing Tall – scaling the heights of the skills ladder

☺ Speaking with a single voice – And delivering on the delivery

As Christ Tarrant commented at our recent (and highly successful) Epsom seminar:

“An idle mind is a ticking explosion waiting to bomb”
